

Safety and Environmental Newsletter

September 2022 — 125th Edition

FY2023

Environmental Management System (EMS) High Priorities approved !

Each year, the environmental risk or opportunity of upcoming fiscal year (FY) projects and activities are scored. On September 12, 2022, Wallops Senior Management approved the EMS High Priorities for FY 2023.

The FY23 High Priorities are listed below with a snap shot of activities which are planned (P), needed (N), or will be a opportunity (O):

Natural and Cultural Resources

- Regulatory consultations to complete planning documents (P)
- Avian Monitoring at USAF tower (P)
- Funding studies and Cultural Sensitivity for Shoreline Resiliency Model (N)

Site Restoration

- PFAS monitoring and investigation activities (P)
- Construction Debris landfill removal (P)
- Viable, cost effective treatment technologies (N)

Water Quality

- Paint and repair MB water tower (P)
- Well 6 on-line (P)
- Renovate 3 more water tanks (N)

Sustainability

- 5 government electric charging stations (P)
- Leak detection survey (P)
- Energy savings from photovoltaic and HVAC projects (O)

Environmental Planning

- North American Balloon Program Office EA (P)
- Wallops Island Northern Development EA (P)
- New Business Growth (O)

